Senior Choir: It's time to start thinking about our next song! We are working on a date in November to sing in the morning worship service. If you have a song that you would like to try, please let Ginger know so that she can begin to prepare and pull things together. We loved the last song and are looking forward to the next one.

Alabaster Offering: Today we will be receiving our Alabaster Offering during the morning service. Please hold onto your Alabaster boxes and offerings until the designated time when we will be asked to come forward and share our contributions by placing them in the large boxes at the front of the church. Your giving allows the work of the kingdom to be extended far beyond the walls of our church.
